Havard And Yale To See Rugby Played

Some little time ago the Honolulu Rugby Association was formed but since then little has been done in the way of playing the game, a few practices taking place but that was all. The movement in favor of rugby is not stagnant, however, it is just as virile as ever it was but those in charge have wisely considered that the time was hardly opportune to force the game before the notice of the general public. Even yet it is considered rather early to begin operations, but as Coronation Day is close upon us and many of the rugby men are Britishers, it is considered time to arrange a game for that day. Saturday a practice game will be played on the Kamehameha ground, courteously placed at the disposal of the Association by Principal P. L. Horne, and teams for the game on Coronation Day will be selected during the week. If possible, the match on Coronation Day will be played on Alexander Ground and make a part of the Coronation Day celebrations, but if this does not meet the view of those handling the celebrations then the rugby players will go elsewhere.

Rugby is gradually attracting attention throughout the States, even in the East, where it has long been considered that the amount of attention given to the intercollegiate game and soccer precluded rugby from getting the slightest attention. But this is changing and at the end of the coming football season the eastern universities, colleges and schools will see exhibition games of rugby. The Barbarians of San Francisco are planning a tour of the country, having practically completed arrangements with the leading institutions.

Such universities as Harvard, Yale, Princeton, Cornell, Columbia, Pennsylvania, Haverford college, University of Illinois, Wisconsin, naval academy at Annapolis and dozens of others have all signified their eagerness to see the game played.

The eastern universities are all anxious to see the rugby code of football as played on the Pacific coast, and have all specially mentioned this fact and their guarantees are given on the distinct understanding that two teams shall be sent that are thoroughly competent to play and give first class exhibitions of the game. From numerous letters received, says the S. F. Call, it is evident that the easterners have all specially mentioned this fact and to the new game. It is hardly probable that it will displace the intercollegiate game in the east, but it is very possible that when the game has been seen the eastern rules committee will pick out points in rugby to incorporate in the intercollegiate game. It is also on the cards that many of the universities will adopt the game as a secondary game, just as soccer is at present.

RUNNERS DUE HERE ON TUESDAY

Jimmie Fitzgerald and Con Hubbenette, according to latest advices, should arrive in Honolulu on Tuesday next, Fitzgerald on the Makura and the Swede on the Hyades, but no word has yet been heard from Fitzgerald and until it is known beyond doubt that he is on board the Australian boat those interested in running here are not likely to depend upon his being on board.

If both men arrive in town as scheduled, Charles Barron will pull off a race at the Athletic Park on July 24, in which Soldier King will also compete. King will have to make a much better showing than he did last Monday if he hopes to do anything against the two expected visitors, according to reports of their running, which put them in a higher class than King. Nigel Jackson, not satisfied with the defeat King inflicted on him last Monday, is out with a deft to race King over the fifteen-mile route, for the gate receipts, of course, but it is extremely doubtful whether this event will be put on by any of the promoters in town.

Barron is not to be blamed for the outcome of Monday's race or the incidents attending to it. He has no excuses to offer however, but says he will profit by the lessons of that race. He will have a good claim to the support of the public if he succeeds in matching Hubbenette with Fitzgerald, but it is up to both the men to show the fans they can go some after they arrive. In the twelve days they will have in town before the race, provided both arrive on the 20th, there will be plenty of time for them to demonstrate that they can run in something like the time they have put up in the past, otherwise, a large attendance can not be expected. The fans might with wisdom imitate the Missourians and desire to be shown first.

settle and ought to be able to last the eight rounds allotted to them. Kradalak shaped very well yesterday

FINAL PRACTICE OF CRICKET MEN

R. A. Jordan and Bob Anderson will captain the teams which will meet on the cricket field at Makiki on Saturday afternoon for the final practice game before the Coronation day match. Play will commence at two o'clock and will be continued as long as there is sufficient light to play. All the cricketers in town, whether Britishers or not, are invited to attend on the ground and take part in the match, as it is desired to have the strongest available elevens to play on the 22nd. After the coronation match the cricketers will turn their attention to the naval men on board the British cruisers Kent and Challenger, both of which are expected to reach port on the 27th inst. With the number of players who are presenting themselves for play at these practice games it is probable that two teams will be selected to play weekly games right through the season. If this can be arranged cricket stands in a fair way to take its right place in the field of sport here.

BOXERS FINISH THEIR TRAINING

Kid George and Patsy McKenna finish off their hard training this afternoon and will rest tomorrow and Saturday, preparatory to entering the ring on Saturday night at the Orpheum to battle over the fifteen-round distance for the middleweight crown. Kradalak and Williams, who are to provide the preliminary, are in fine when a party of sports from town journeyed out to Lihalehua to see the man at work. He will have a big backing against Williams, but all the marines will rally to the support of their slugger. There is not a great deal of betting on the George-McKenna contest for the reason that the local sports have not sufficient data on which to base their opinions. The men are both shaping well and promise to provide a good battle. If they do this they will please all the spectators, even if the fight goes the limit and a draw is declared, though fans generally are partial to knock-outs.

POLO PRACTICE AT MOANALUA

Fifteen men turned out for polo practice at Moanalua yesterday and played six periods, the first team, captained by Walter Dillingham, going through four periods and only having one goal scored against it, while it notched seven or eight goals. Play was of the same standard already attained in these practices, but some of the players are showing better form with each game. Sam Baldwin, W. Rycroft, A. Jones and U. Lemon did not turn out yesterday, but they are expected to line up as usual again next Saturday. Clarence Smith was out for one period, but the other players who are sticking to the game this season turned out in force.

George Brown Coming Back.

It is reported that George Brown is coming back into the game. He has been out of it for four or five years, but showed great promise as a player when he was in the sport in the days when games were played on Kaniolani Park. He has a good eye and is a fine rider, as well as being in a position to secure the finest mounts in the country if he decides to take an active part in the game.

On Saturday next it is hoped to have sixteen men out and to play a series of games with the four colors.

No Decision As to Cavalry Game. Nothing further has been decided as to the proposed games between the Onu team and the Fifth Cavalry. It has not been settled just when the first game will be played nor where it will take place. The town folks hope that the first game will be played at Moanalua, while the cavalry naturally would prefer the game at Lihalehua.

Mainland Sporting Notes

"Philo" Mobley Some Class.

P. Mobley, the Coast pitcher who came over on the Honolulu for a vacation, is a well-known twirler, as may be imagined from the following, which is called from the S. F. Chronicle:

"Philo Mobley has been pitching for the Modesto Reds for three seasons, and during that time has lost but very few games. Prior to coming to Modesto, Mobley was in professional ball, pitching for several clubs in the Northwest League and later for Santa Cruz in the State League. Since his advent in Modesto he has had many opportunities to return to professional baseball, but prefers to stick to business and merely play ball as a recreation. Mobley is one of the best fielding pitchers in the State and seldom has an error chalked up against him. He is also a good hitter, batting over the 300 mark last season. It is seldom that hits are bunched on him, and in a hard game he seems to grow steadier as the game progresses.

The Reds have played seven games since the opening of the regular semi-professional season, and have lost but one game, that to the San Mateo nine. On June 4th they will journey to San Mateo for a return game. In the seven games played a total of but eight runs has been scored by the visiting teams, and in one of them Mobley held the opposing team down without a hit, but one man reached first base. During June the Reds play two games with Newman, and will also entertain Overall's Angels and the Galt nine. Mobley bears a striking resemblance to Dr. Moskman, of the Seals, in looks and actions on the ball field. On more than one occasion Philo has been taken for the well known medic."

Jerome D. Travers, the veteran golfer, won the Metropolitan golf championship defeating Oswald Kirby, of Englewood, four up and three to go.

Wolgaast Vanquishes Burns. Ad Wolgaast, the lightweight champion, protected his title by defeating Frankie Burns in San Francisco in a twenty round go, which was stopped in the seventeenth round after Burns had stood a tremendous amount of punishment and was practically out. His seconds threw up the sponge. The Oakland lightweight put up a splendid fight, and took all kinds of punishment, but with his meagre ring experience gained in but five battles, he was no match for his more experienced antagonist, and Wolgaast wore him down almost to a pulp.

Cornell's Splendid Victory.

At the thirty-sixth intercollegiate track meet held at Cambridge, Mass., Cornell won with thirty and a half points. Yale was second with twenty-four and a half points, Michigan had a half point less, and Pennsylvania was fourth with eighteen and two-thirds points. The other colleges finished in the order named: Dartmouth, Princeton, Harvard, Amherst, Columbia, Williams, Massachusetts Technical, Rutgers, Pennsylvania State, and Brown. Five intercollegiate records, including one world's amateur record were broken. John Paul Jones, of Cornell, after hanging up a new record of one minute, fifty-four and four-fifths seconds for the half mile, captured the mile in four minutes fifteen and two-fifths seconds, cutting the world's amateur record one-fifth of a second.

The Private yacht Virginia, owned by E. C. Benedict, the New York banker, has gone ashore about ninety miles from Havana, Cuba. It is expected that the yacht will be saved.

More than $67,000 has been expended for seats by those wishing to see the international polo matches at Meadowbrook, New York, which begin this week. British teams will compete with the Americans.

Harvard Twice Beaten by Cornell.

Harvard went down in crushing defeat before Cornell in the boat races on Lake Cayuga on May 27. The Cornell varsity won by two lengths, and the freshman crew led their opponents five lengths to the goal. The varsity race was virtually over at the half mile, where the Ithacans were a quarter of a length ahead. At this point the Cornell crew was rowing a 35 stroke and the Harvard crew 38. There was open water between the boats at the three-quarter mile, with Cornell rowing 34 strokes and Harvard 36. Within 200 yards of the finish Cornell increased its lead to two lengths, which it maintained to the finish. At the end of the race Cutler of the Harvard crew was in evident distress. The freshman race was an easy victory. Cornell was a length ahead at the mile and increased its lead almost at will. The official time: Varsity-Cornell, 10:59; Harvard, 11:08 3/5. Freshman-Cornell, 11:15; Harvard 11:45.

Jeffries on His Way Home.

James J. Jeffries and his wife have started back to the United States from London by way of Paris. Jeffries said he was merely on a pleasure trip and had abandoned pugilism forever. He is going to Alaska on a bear hunting trip in July and after that will return to Los Angeles.

Yale Wins at Tennis.

Yale won every match in both singles and doubles in the annual lawn tennis tournament with Harvard at Boston on May 30. The total score was 9 to 0.

There're a lot of things need fixing

Says the Little Paint Man.

Things around the place will suffer from wear and tear. And after a while they get so shabby that we feel obliged to chuck 'em away and get something new in their place. But it's a mistake and if we only all had the "Brighten Up" habit we'd keep things spick and span all the time by having a pot of paint, a tin of varnish and a brush handy. Just read this and do some "Brightening Up" right away.

Paint your porch chairs in bright colors with S-W Porch and Lawn Furniture Enamel or S-W Buggy Paint. (S-W means Sherwin-Williams—the name that stands for good quality in Paints and Varnishes.) The screen doors and window screens will look bright and new after a coat of S-W Screen Enamel. Makes them wear longer, keeps the screen from rusting. Cupboards inside and out made fresh and sanitary with S-W Family Paint—21 attractive colors. Fine for touching up woodwork. Old, worn floors made clean and attractive with a coat of S-W Inside Floor Paint. Or a stained and varnished finish at one operation with S-W Floorlac. Revitalize the front door with S-W Kopal. It stands the weather. Repaint the doors inside with S-W Family Paint. No matter what you have to fix up, we have a Sherwin-Williams Finish that will do the job well.

There're a hundred other things that need touching up. Make a list of the dingy things and come to us and we'll tell you what to do.
